An illuminated manuscript is a manuscript in which the text is supplemented with such decoration as initials, borders and miniature illustrations. In the strictest definition, the term refers only to manuscripts decorated with either gold or silver; but in both common usage and modern scholarship, the term refers to any decorated or illustrated manuscript from Western traditions.

A book of hours is a type of devotional text which was widely popular during the Middle Ages. They are the most common type of surviving medieval illuminated manuscripts. Each book of hours contain a similar collection of texts, prayers, and psalms but decoration can vary between each and each example. Many have minimal illumination, often restricted to ornamented initials, but books of hours ...

A portable source of light probably started with a cave man carrying a burning stick of wood. There have been many portable light sources based on burning something. Once the dry cell battery became available flashlights became more popular than they were when a lead acid or other wet battery was needed.

Albert Einstein's work on quantum mechanics is of major importance to information philosophy, because we depend on a limited indeterminism and an "adequate" or statistical determinism to explain the possibilities in an open future needed to create new information. Einstein was in 1916 the discoverer of indeterminism and ontological chance, though he was reluctant to fully accept chance in his ...
